Coordinator Arenas presented the following report:

20/20 – Still working on firewall and security updates.

ID Networks – No change trying to get issues resolved

Grants – We have received reimbursement for recorders. Also surplus E911 money from the state will be distributed soon.

ATT Redundancy – CPD is complete. SPD coming soon

Rapid SOS – Communicator is on hold waiting for Zetron and GTSI to set up remote access.

Virtual Consolidation of work stations – Was discussed that Zetron's extended care maintenance contract for this would be very high.

Justin attended the NENA conference in California. The big topic was AI and how it can be applied for 911. Many opportunities to meet with vendors and consultants.

Justin will be taking the ENP exam soon.

Sirens – First Net and siren vendors have been working on plans for siren activation

Old Business:

1. MCM Consulting – Very impressed with their guidance and help

New Business:

Adjournment:

Motion by Whritenour, seconded by Ambuehl to adjourn at 8:41 am.

Motion passed without opposition.

Next Regular Meeting: Wednesday August 13th 8 am at Village Garden in Salem
